

FAIR CREDIT REPORTING ACT NOTIFICATION

(Required use under Section 604(b) of the FCRA)

Cheyney University of PA (the “company”) intends to obtain and use a consumer report or an investigative consumer report from an external consumer reporting agency for employment purposes. These purposes may include but are not limited to:

- considering your application for employment;
- making a decision whether to offer you employment with the company;
- deciding whether to continue your employment (if you are hired by the company);
- doing periodic rescreening of current employees, and/or;
- making any other employment decisions affecting you.

A consumer reporting agency is a person or business that regularly assembles or evaluates consumer credit information or other information on consumers. As an applicant or an employee, you are considered a “consumer” under the Fair Credit Reporting Act.

A consumer report may include information about your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living, which is used or collected for employment purposes. An investigative consumer report also involves personal interviews with sources such as employers, educators, etc.

You have a right to request disclosures of the nature and scope of any investigative consumer report that the company obtains about you. You also have other rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act, a summary of which is available at: <http://www.ftc.gov/os/2004/11/041119factaappf.pdf>.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I hereby acknowledge that Cheyney University of PA may obtain consumer reports and investigative consumer reports about me from a consumer reporting agency and that they may consider information in consumer reports and investigative consumer reports as part of their decision making process regarding any aspect of my application for employment and/or continued employment with the company including periodic rescreening of current employees. I also acknowledge that I have received a copy of the Summary of Rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act.
