The Student Code of Conduct

(The Student Code of Conduct, Cheyney University 2014-2017)

Cheyney University strives to maintain an intellectual atmosphere that is designed to foster and support students' educational objectives and which protects the health, safety, and welfare of all members of the University community. Moreover, Cheyney University works in collaboration with numerous stakeholders to nurture responsible, conscientious, and contributing citizens. To enforce these standards, Cheyney University has adopted the Student Code of Conduct.

The Student Code of Conduct is Cheyney University's formal policy pertaining to the adjudication of violations of the standards of behavior and conduct expected of students enrolled at the University. Every student is expected to uphold high standards of conduct and civility in their day-to-day contact with all members of the University community. Additionally, students must observe all established policies, procedures, rules, and regulations, which govern the institution, as well as all local, state, and federal laws. Reasonable efforts are made to foster the personal, educational, and social development of those students who are found in violation of the Student Code of Conduct.

The Office of Student Activities is responsible for providing oversight of the process for protecting students' rights to live and learn in a safe, orderly, caring, and crime-free environment. On-campus residential students may also be subject to disciplinary action by the Office of Housing Operations and Auxiliary Services.

Standards of Behavior and Conduct

Cheyney University has established standards of behavior and conduct, which when not upheld are considered violations of the Student Code of Conduct. These acts, and in some cases, the failure to act, necessitates disciplinary attention and will subject students to disciplinary action through the student judicial process.

The policies and rules outlined herein are not exclusive; students are advised that they are subject to additional policies and rules by Cheyney University. Students who participate in the Office of Housing Operations and Auxiliary Services program are reminded that, in addition to the policies and rules identified in the Student Code of Conduct, they must also adhere to the provisions of the Student Housing Agreement, as well as other procedures and regulations as directed by the Office of Housing Operations and Auxiliary Services.

12. Deferred Suspension: Students will be informed, in writing, that even though their conduct is unacceptable and the behavior displayed warrants suspension, a suspension is being deferred at this time. Students to whom a sanction of deferred suspension is imposed are not considered in good standing with the University. Deferred suspension, like disciplinary probation, is a period of review during which the student must demonstrate the ability to comply with University policies, rules, and all other requirements, as stipulated. If during the period of deferred suspension, a student is again found responsible for a violation of the Student Code of Conduct or violating an order of the University Disciplinary Committee, the student can be immediately suspended from Cheyney University.

13. Disciplinary Suspension: Students will be involuntarily separated from the University for a specified period of time with the understanding that the student may be returned to good standing at the completion of the suspension period. This action involves the following: loss of the privilege to be enrolled as a student at Cheyney University, from one to eight semesters; notation of the suspension on the student's disciplinary records; withdrawal from all courses in accordance with University policy; and forfeiture of tuition and fees. See REFUND POLICY in the Student Handbook. Students will be required to return their Cheyney University ID card and room key (if applicable) before they vacate the University premises. Students suspended from Cheyney University are prohibited from visiting any and all affiliated University premise and facilities as they will be considered as trespassing.

14. Expulsion: Students will be permanently separated from the University. This action involves the following: forfeiture of all rights and degrees not conferred at the time of expulsion; permanent notation of the expulsion on the student's academic and disciplinary records; withdrawal from all courses in accordance with University policy; and forfeiture of tuition and fees. See REFUND POLICY in the Student Handbook. Students will be required to return their Cheyney University ID card and room key (if applicable) before they vacate the University premises. Students expelled from Cheyney University are prohibited from visiting any and all affiliated University premises as well as complete all requirements pertaining to withdrawing from the University.

Note: Stops on Account/Records: The University may withhold transcripts, diplomas, or other official records and/or suspend certain privileges such as class registration, moving into a residence hall, participation in the housing selection process, etc. pending the disposition of cases and completion of sanctions if such action is reasonably necessary to preserve the University's ability to enforce its disciplinary rules.

Disciplinary Procedures

Student conduct that contradicts basic interests and policies of the University community will be addressed under the disciplinary procedures designed to facilitate fair and impartial resolution. Hearings, whether held before the Judicial Affairs Director or designee, University Disciplinary Committee or professional designee is unlike courts. These conduct procedures involve a full discussion of charges and circumstances. Rules of evidence and procedure differ from proceedings before criminal or civil authorities. A University Disciplinary Committee member or designee who has a conflict with, bias about, or interest in the case should recue himself.

- Complaints of an alleged violation by a student shall be made in writing and submitted to the Office of Public Safety or Judicial Affairs Director or designee. Infractions which take place in the Office of Housing Operations and Auxiliary Services community will be addressed by the designated University professional or Director of Judicial Affairs depending on the severity of the infraction.
- Each complaint shall contain a statement of facts outlining each alleged act of misconduct, and shall state all regulations that the student is alleged to have violated.
- The student shall be notified of the alleged violation in writing by the Chairperson of the University Disciplinary Committee or the designated professional at least 72 hours in advance of the hearing. Judicial hearing notices will be delivered to the residence halls, emailed to the student's University email account or sent to their home address, where appropriate. Where there is reasonable proof that a letter or email has been delivered, the student will be held responsible for honoring the hearing date.
- Notices shall include: the date, time, and location of the hearing; a statement of the specific allegation(s) and notice to the student that he/she is entitled to bring witnesses and one advisor of his/her choosing.
- Students accused of minor violations will be offered the opportunity to waive their right to a hearing, admit responsibility for the violation, and accept the sanction. Students can waive their rights to a hearing by agreeing to meet with the Director of Judicial Affairs or professional designee. Residential students may have to meet with an Office of Housing Operations and Auxiliary Services professional for alleged infractions.

- Students or student organizations who fail to appear at an initial scheduled hearing will be scheduled for a second hearing. Failure to appear for the second scheduled hearing will result in the hearing being conducted in the student's absence if no written excuse is offered 24 hours after the scheduled hearing. Any students or student organizations who fail to appear at the second scheduled hearing consent to the conducting of said conference in their absence.
- The decision reached at the hearing will be communicated in writing to the student via email and a hard copy of this correspondence will be sent to their on-campus or home address. Additionally, the student shall be notified in writing of his or her right to appeal the decision. In cases of appeal, any action assessed by the hearing body or officer shall remain in effect, pending the outcome of the University Disciplinary Appeals Committee.

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

This statute protects the privacy of a student's educational records and prohibits the release of student information to third parties, including the student's parents. Parents of all students 18 years of age or older will not be provided with disciplinary information except as permitted by Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). Therefore, a student will be expected to notify his or her parent(s) or guardians of the charges. Parent(s) or guardians may request a conference with the Director of Judicial Affairs, or professional designee. Cheyney University administrators will not discuss the matter with or provide notification to the parents of that student. This practice is based upon federal regulations which address the privacy of a student's educational record.

At hearings of the University Disciplinary Committee or professional designee, a student shall be afforded all rights required of due process, including:

- The right to one advisor of his/her choice. (Advisors may not speak during the hearing to the University Disciplinary Committee. However, the advisor may consult privately with the student.)

- The right to attend classes and required University functions until a hearing is held and a decision is rendered. Exceptions to this would be made in the event of an interim/immediate suspension, when the University, in its sole discretion determines that the student's presence would create a substantial likelihood of material interference with the normal operation and processes at the University by posing a risk to the health, safety, or welfare of the campus community and the student.

- A recording of the hearing can be supplied to the student but the student must provide a flash drive to Judicial Affairs. The student may be required to pay the cost of copying or transcribing any materials related to providing a copy of the judicial proceedings.

Hearing Procedures:

- Before presenting any testimony, each witness must submit to an oath where he or she swears and affirms the truth of statements to be made.
- The University Disciplinary Committee or professional designee shall open the proceedings by reading the statement of charges.
- The student will have the opportunity to enter a plea of guilty or not guilty.

- At the conclusion of the charging party's presentation, the referred party shall present a response to the charges. This shall be done by the submission of written, physical, and testimonial evidence. The charging party and the University Disciplinary Committee or professional designee shall have the right to conduct reasonable and pertinent questioning of the referred party and the referred party's witnesses.
- Witnesses will be allowed in the hearing to testify and answer questions posed by the University Disciplinary Committee or professional designee. Witnesses will be asked to leave after their testimony has been given and before closing statements are made.
- Each party will have the opportunity to make a closing statement.
- The University Disciplinary Committee or professional designee will determine the outcome of the case based on the all materials, testimony, and evidence presented. In addition, the testimony and evidence presented at the hearing, the University Disciplinary Committee or professional designee may consider the following elements before rendering a sanction:
  - Academic record and class year
  - Previous discipline record including that which is public record
  - Attitude of the accused during the hearing
- The Chair of the University Disciplinary Committee or professional designee shall be responsible for maintaining order and room decorum, and make all rules reasonable and necessary for the orderly and efficient disposition of the cases. All hearings are closed proceedings.

The University Disciplinary Committee

The composition of the University Disciplinary Committee shall be as follows:

- Faculty members to be approved by the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs.
- Full-time enrolled students, to include one (1) from each residence hall to be recommended by the Assistant Director of the Office of Housing Operations and Auxiliary Services in charge of the building and one (1) recommended by the Student Government Association (SGA).

- Administrative staff members to be approved by the Dean of Student Affairs. Students who serve as members of the University Disciplinary Committee must have a minimum cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 2.5, a good judicial standing, and will be formally appointed as University volunteers, in accordance with Board of Governors policy.

Preliminary investigations of charges against students shall be made by the University Disciplinary Committee through its Chairperson or professional designee.

The Chairperson of the Disciplinary Committee or professional designee shall expeditiously set the time and place for a hearing and shall notify the other members. From that point, all summoning of defendant(s) and witnesses shall be done by the Chairperson of the Disciplinary Committee or professional designee. Students subject to an interim/immediate suspension by the Dean of Student Affairs or his/her designee shall have a hearing within ten (10) business days, as dictated by Commonwealth regulations.

Decisions of the University Disciplinary Committee shall be by majority vote. A quorum will be necessary to hold a hearing. A quorum shall consist of four members; two faculty/staff, one student, and the Committee Chair or Designee. Any member of the University Disciplinary Committee or professional designee shall disqualify himself/herself if personal involvement in the case is of such a nature as to be detrimental to the interest of the accused or the institution. All potential facts that may give rise to a question of disqualification should be provided to the Chairperson for final resolution. The decision of the Chairperson shall be final. In the event that the Chairperson has a conflict, such conflict shall be disclosed to the Dean of Student Affairs. The decision of the Dean of Student Affairs, as to the Chairperson's participation, is final.

The decision shall be based on inherently-reliable evidence. Hearsay shall not be used as the sole evidence to establish any fact necessary to establish responsibility in any case. The hearing may include a student's previous disciplinary record in the event that the student is found responsible for violating the Student Code of Conduct, in an effort to determine the appropriate sanctions to be imposed.

The hearing, and other deliberations of the University Disciplinary Committee or professional designee, shall be closed except for the accused, an advisor for the accused, the University Disciplinary Committee or professional designee, the University official presenting the case, witnesses and/or persons who have been asked to testify by either the accused or accuser. Such witnesses asked to testify should only be present for the portion of the hearing that involves their testimony and questions arising from that testimony.

A brief determination letter shall be sent to the student(s), the Dean of Student Affairs, and others as appropriate, within twenty (20) business days after the hearing.

Members of the University Disciplinary Committee or professional designee shall execute a Statement of Confidentiality, as to information received concerning any student disciplinary matter.

Disciplinary Appeal Procedures

An appeal of the decision of the University Disciplinary Committee or professional designee may be filed with the Dean of Student Affairs or his/her designee on the following grounds:

1. The hearing process was conducted unfairly and in accordance with established procedures.
2. There is new evidence or relevant information, not available at the time of the original hearing, which may alter the outcome of the case.
3. The University policies, procedures, rules, or regulations alleged to have been violated were not properly interpreted or applied by the University Disciplinary Committee or professional designee.
4. The sanction imposed was not proportionate to the gravity of the misconduct.

In all cases, the student shall clearly state the grounds for appeal in a written statement to the University Disciplinary Appeals Committee or by following the guidelines below:

- The aggrieved student must, within five (5) business days of receiving notification of the determination from the University Disciplinary Committee or professional designee, appeal in writing to the Dean of Student Affairs.
- Within five (5) business days of receiving the student's written appeal, the Dean of Student Affairs will notify the Chair of the University Disciplinary Appeals Committee who will then convene the members of the University Disciplinary Appeals Committee and review all of the information presented (written summaries, audiotapes, and/or transcripts, any party involved to include the Chair of the University Disciplinary Committee) in the case file and make a final decision.
- Should the Dean of Student Affairs elect to appoint a Special University Disciplinary Appeals Committee to hear the appeal, the composition will be as follows: (4) four tenure/tenure-track faculty or staff members and (1) one fulltime-enrolled student, none of which would have a conflict of interest in reviewing the decision of the University Disciplinary Committee.
- Within 10 days of the receipt of the appeal from the Dean of Student Affairs, the chairperson of the University Disciplinary Appeals Committee shall convene the committee and forward the committee's decision regarding the appeal to the Dean of Student Affairs.

Residential Life

Although the University maintains a police and security force, hall safety and security is every student's business. Students are expected to use main entrances, register all guests at the front desk, and keep all side doors closed. Further, they should report to hall staff and/or Public Safety, any suspicious person in the residence halls, report abuse of fire and safety systems, secure their room keys at all times, lock their rooms, and leave valuable possessions at home.

Residence Life programs include hall meetings, academic support activities, college adjustment services, wellness activities, and social group experiences. Students who commute may visit the residence halls at times designated by the Office Housing Operations and Auxiliary Services and purchase meals at the University cafeteria.
