Satisfactory Academic Progress Appeal Form 2019-2020

Cheyney University and the U.S. Department of Education encourage all students to complete their degrees in a timely manner and with satisfactory grades. For students receiving financial aid from Federal Title IV assistance programs, including Federal Pell and Supplemental Educational Opportunity (SEOG) Grants, Federal College Work-Study Program, and Federal Direct Loans (Subsidized, Unsubsidized, and PLUS), the Federal government links financial aid eligibility to the students' academics through a policy known as Satisfactory Academic Progress.

Further information regarding these standards can be found at:
<http://www.cheyney.edu/financial-aid/documents/SAPPolicyRev05-13-15.pdf>

To be considered for an appeal you must complete this form and attach your signed personal statement describing the reasons and/or circumstances surrounding your lack of sufficient progress. Examples of the circumstances for which a student would be permitted to submit an appeal include death of a relative, significant injury or illness of the student or other extenuating circumstances. You must prove that the circumstances affecting your ability to perform academically have changed and thus you will have the potential to improve your performance in the upcoming term. Extenuating circumstances must be documented, e.g., hospitalization records, death certificate, statement from employer of change in job responsibilities, etc. If your appeal is approved, you will be required to complete an academic success plan with an academic advisor.

NOTE: Submission of the appeal form does not guaranteed an approval. A student who is determined to be unable to mathematically reverse unsatisfactory academic progress (completion rate and cumulative GPA), the appeal will be denied.

The Financial Aid Office will notify you of its decision by e-mail to your Cheyney University email address. APPEAL FORMS SUBMITTED WITHOUT SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION ARE CONSIDERED INCOMPLETE AND WILL NOT BE REVIEWED
